"Sugar States" and Their Supporters Could Defeat Him Unless Given Protection

A declaration from an influential Democrat, resident of Washington, D. that there is a splendid chance to secure the repeal of the "free sugar" provision of the Wilson-Underwood tariff act comes to Hawaii through Harry F. Lewis of this city, now in California

Writing from San Francisco, Mr. Lewis encloses a copy of the letter he has received from the Washington man. It is as follows:

"Washington, D. C., July 7, 1915. Mr. H. F. Lewis, San Francisco, Cal. "My dear Sir: Answering your letter of the 2d inst., I have been making some laquiries relative to the sugar situation and I am now of the opinion that if the matter is properly handled the law placing sugar on the free list can be repealed at the next session
